Section 6.02. Additional Contributions. The Member is not required to make any additional capital contributions to the Company. The provisions of this Agreement, including this Section, are intended solely to benefit the Member and, to the fullest extent permitted by law, shall not be construed as conferring any benefit upon any creditor of the Company (and no such creditor of the Company shall be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement) and to the fullest extent permitted by law, no Member shall have any duty or obligation to any creditor of the Company to make any contribution to the Company or to issue any call for capital pursuant to this Agreement.

Section 6.03. Resignations or Transfers. The Member shall not be entitled to be repaid any portion of its Member Account or resign from the Company or transfer its limited liability company interest in the Company without the consent of the Board or as otherwise provided in this Agreement. In the event of the Member's resignation from the Company or transfer of its limited liability company interest in the Company, the Member shall, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, designate a successor Member. Where such successor Member is not an Affiliate, admission shall be subject to the conditions set forth in Section 6.04. The Company shall notify each Rating Agency of any transfer of limited liability company interests or resignation of the Member. The Member's resignation or transfer shall become effective upon the admission of a successor Member.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, any successor to the Member by merger or consolidation in compliance with the Basic Documents shall, without further act, be the Member hereunder, and such merger or consolidation shall not constitute an assignment for purposes of this Agreement and the Company shall continue without dissolution.

Section 6.04. Additional Members. Additional Members may be admitted to the Company as Members of the Company with the written consent of the Member, ratification of 100% of the Board, including the Independent Managers and with prior written notice to each Rating Agency. The rights of any such additional Member shall be specified in an amendment or supplement to this Agreement executed by each current member. No other additional Members shall be admitted to the Company other than in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement.

The Member may at any time designate a Manager to fill any vacancy, and may designate additional Managers up to the numbers set forth in Section 7.03 and beyond that upon amendment of this Agreement to provide for additional Managers. A vacancy or vacancies shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, incapacity, resignation or removal of any Manager, or if the Board shall increase the authorized number of Managers.

Subject to Sections 7.15 and 7.16 of this Agreement, if the Board accepts the resignation of a Manager tendered to take effect at a future time, the Member shall have power to designate a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

No reduction of the number of authorized Managers shall have the effect of removing any Manager prior to the expiration of his or her term of office.

Section 7.06. Removal of Managers. Subject to Sections 7.15 and 7.16 of this Agreement, the entire Board or any individual Manager may be removed from office by the Member, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

Section 7.07. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the Board shall be held at such place as may be designated for that purpose from time to time by the President. Managers of the Board may participate in a meeting of the Board by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment permitting all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and participation in a meeting by such means shall constitute presence in person at such meeting. Any meeting shall be valid, wherever held, if held with the written consent of such Managers of the Board necessary to approve such action, given either before or after the meeting and filed in the Company's records.

Section 7.08. Annual Meeting. The Board shall conduct an annual meeting, to be held following notice by the President.

Section 7.09. Special Meetings – Notice. Special meetings of the Board for any purpose may be called at any time by the President or by any two Managers. Any such written notice shall be addressed or delivered to each Manager at such Manager's address as it is shown upon the records of the Company or may have been given to the Company by the Manager for purposes of notice or, if such address is not shown on records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place in which the meetings of the Board are regularly held.

Any personal notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is personally delivered to the recipient. Written notice by e-mail shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is actually transmitted by the person giving the notice by e-mail to the recipient.

Section 7.10. Waiver. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any Manager who signs a waiver of notice or a consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting the insufficiency of notice to such Manager at its commencement. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the Company's records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 7.11. Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting if such Managers necessary to approve such action pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a vote of such Managers. Any certificate or other document filed which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by the written consent of the Board without a meeting and that this Agreement authorizes the Managers to so act. Such statement shall be the prima facie evidence of such authority. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting if a majority of the Managers (excluding the Independent Managers) provide written consent.

Section 7.12. Notice of Adjournment. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent Managers if the time and place be fixed at the meeting adjourned.

Section 7.13. Quorum. A majority of the authorized number of Managers as fixed in accordance with this Agreement shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and, subject to the provisions of this Agreement (including those that specify that approval by Independent Managers is required with respect to certain actions), the action of a majority of the Managers present at any meeting at which there is a quorum, when duly assembled, is valid as an act of the Company.

Section 7.14. Fees and Compensation. Managers and Officers may receive such compensation and fees, if any, for their services, and such reimbursement for expenses, as may be determined by resolution of the Board.

Section 7.15. Independent Managers. So long as any Securities are outstanding, this Section shall not be amended, altered or repealed without the written consent of 100% of the Board (including Independent Managers) with notice of such amendment provided promptly to each Rating Agency. To the fullest extent permitted by law, including Section 18-1101(c) of the Act, and notwithstanding any duty otherwise existing at law or in equity, the Independent Managers shall consider only the interests of the Company, including its creditors, in acting or otherwise voting on the matters referred to in Section 5.02. Except for duties to the Company as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence (including duties to the Member and the Company's creditors solely to the extent of their respective economic interests in the Company but excluding (i) all other interests of the Member, (ii) the interests of other Affiliates of the Company, and (iii) the interests of any group of Affiliates of which the Company is a part), the Independent Managers shall not have any fiduciary duties to the Member or any other Person bound by this Agreement; provided, however, the foregoing shall not eliminate the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing. To the fullest extent permitted by law, including Section 18-1101(e) of the Act, an Independent Manager shall not be liable to the Company, the Member or any other Person bound by this Agreement for breach of contract or breach of duties (including fiduciary duties), unless the Independent Manager acted in bad faith or engaged in willful misconduct. No resignation or removal of an Independent Manager, and no appointment of a successor Independent Manager, shall be effective until such successor shall have executed a counterpart to this Agreement. In the event of a vacancy in the position of Independent Manager, the Member shall, as soon as practicable, appoint a successor Independent Manager. All right, power and authority of the Independent Managers shall be limited to the extent necessary to exercise those rights and perform those duties specifically set forth in this Agreement and the Independent Managers shall otherwise have no authority to bind the Company. No Independent Manager shall at any time serve as trustee in bankruptcy for any Affiliate of the Company.

Section 11.02. Indemnification. Subject to the following sentences, the Company shall have the authority, to the maximum extent permitted by the Act and other applicable law, and hereby does indemnify each of its Managers, Officers, employees and agents to the fullest extent permissible under Delaware law and this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company has outstanding any securities rated by a Rating Agency, the Company's obligation to pay any amount as indemnification or as an advancement of expenses (other than amounts received from insurance policies) shall be fully subordinated to payment of amounts then due on the rated securities and, in any case, (x) nonrecourse to any of the Company's assets pledged to secure the rated securities, and (y) shall not constitute a claim against the Company to the extent that funds are insufficient to pay such amounts. For purposes of this section, an "Officer" or "Manager" of the Company shall mean any person who is an Officer or Manager of the Company, or is serving at the request of the Company as a director or officer of another corporation or other enterprise.

Section 11.03. Fiduciary Duties. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a Member, Manager, or agent of the Company or a director, officer, employee or Affiliate of such person (each, a "Covered Person") has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company or to any other Covered Person, a Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall not be liable to the Company or to the Member for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties and liabilities of a Covered Person otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Member to replace such other duties and liabilities of such Covered Person.

Section 12.05. Contracts, etc. - How Executed. The Board, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, may authorize any Officer or Officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Company. Every contract, note, mortgage, lease, deed or other instrument or agreement executed by any Officer or Officers shall be conclusive evidence that at the time of execution the Company was then in existence, that this Agreement had not theretofore been terminated or amended (unless otherwise stated) in any manner and that the execution and delivery of such instrument was duly authorized by the Board. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized by the Board, no Officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the Company by any contract or engagement, or to pledge its credit, or to render it liable for any purpose or amount.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN TERM OF COMPANY

Section 13.01. Commencement. The term of the Company shall commence upon the filing of the Certificate of Formation with the Secretary of State.

Section 13.02. Duration. The term of the Company shall continue perpetually, unless the Company is dissolved in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. The existence of the Company as a separate legal entity shall continue until cancellation of the Certificate of Formation in the manner required by the Act.

Section 13.03. Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved and its affairs wound up upon the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) upon unanimous written consent of the Member and 100% of the Managers, including the Independent Managers; (ii) the termination of the legal existence of the last remaining member of the Company or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of the last remaining member of the Company in the Company unless the Company is continued without dissolution in a manner permitted by this Agreement or the Act; or (iii) the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution of the Company under §18-802 of the Act.

Upon the occurrence of any event that causes the last remaining member of the Company to cease to be a member of the Company or that causes the Member to cease to be a member of the Company (other than upon continuation of the Company without dissolution upon (i) an assignment by the Member of all of its limited liability company interest in the Company and the admission of the transferee pursuant to Sections 6.03 and 6.04, or (ii) the resignation of the Member and the admission of an additional member of the Company pursuant to Sections 6.03 and 6.04), to the fullest extent permitted by law, the personal representative of such member is hereby authorized to, and shall, within 90 days after the occurrence of the event that terminated the continued membership of such member in the Company, agree in writing (i) to continue the Company and (ii) to the admission of the personal representative or its nominee or designee, as the case may be, as a substitute member of the Company, effective as of the occurrence of the event that terminated the continued membership of such member in the Company.

Section 13.04. Continuation of Company. The resignation, withdrawal, expulsion, insolvency or dissolution of the Member or the occurrence of any event that terminates the continued membership of the Member shall not, in and of itself, cause the Company to be dissolved or its affairs to be wound up, and upon the occurrence of any such event, the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be continued without dissolution as permitted by this Agreement and the Act. In the event the Member's interest in the Company is terminated, provisions herein requiring the vote or consent of the Member shall no longer apply.

Section 13.05. Bankruptcy or Insolvency of Member. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Bankruptcy of the Member or a Special Member shall not cause the Member or a Special Member, respectively, to cease to be a member of the Company and upon the occurrence of such an event, the business of the Company shall continue without dissolution.

Section 13.06. Admission of Special Member. Upon the occurrence of any event that causes the Member to cease to be a member of the Company (other than upon continuation of the Company without dissolution upon (i) an assignment by the Member of all of its limited liability company interest in the Company and the admission of the transferee as a member of the Company, effective immediately prior to such transfer, or (ii) the resignation of the Member and the admission of a successor member of the Company, effective immediately prior to such resignation), each person acting as an Independent Manager pursuant to Article Seven shall, without any action of any Person and simultaneously with the Member ceasing to be a member of the Company, automatically be admitted to the Company as a Special Member and shall continue the Company without dissolution. No Special Member may resign from the Company or transfer its rights as Special Member unless (i) a successor Special Member has been admitted to the Company as Special Member by executing a counterpart to this Agreement, and (ii) such successor has also accepted its appointment as Independent Manager pursuant to Article Seven; provided, however, the Special Members shall automatically cease to be members of the Company upon the admission to the Company of a substitute Member. Each Special Member shall be a member of the Company that has no interest in the assets and capital of the Company and has no right to receive any distributions of Company assets. Each Special Member shall be entitled to the benefits of the exculpation from liability and indemnification provisions contained in Article Eleven. Pursuant to Section 18-301 of the Act, a Special Member shall not be required to make any capital contributions to the Company and shall not receive a limited liability company interest in the Company. A Special Member, in its capacity as Special Member, may not bind the Company. Except as required by any mandatory provision of the Act, each Special Member, in its capacity as Special Member, shall have no right to vote on, approve or otherwise consent to any action by, or matter relating to, the Company, including, without limitation, the merger, consolidation or conversion of the Company. In order to implement the admission to the Company of each Special Member, each person acting as an Independent Manager pursuant to Article Seven shall execute a counterpart to this Agreement. Prior to its admission to the Company as Special Member, each person acting as an Independent Manager pursuant to Article Seven shall not be a member of the Company.

ARTICLE FOURTEEN
APPLICATION OF ASSETS

Section 14.01. Application of Assets. Upon dissolution of the Company, the Company shall cease carrying on its business and affairs and shall commence winding up of the Company's business and affairs and complete the winding up as soon as practicable. The Company's affairs shall be concluded by the Managers. The assets of the Company may be liquidated or distributed in kind, as determined by the Managers, and the same shall first be applied to the satisfaction (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment) of the Company's liabilities and then to the Members. If the assets of the Company shall not be sufficient to pay all of the liabilities of the Company, to the fullest extent permitted by law, no assets of the Company may be sold or disposed of without the written consent of all of the holders of outstanding Securities. To the extent that Company assets cannot either be sold without undue loss or readily divided for distribution in kind to the Members, then the Company may, as determined by the Managers, convey those assets to a suitable holding entity established for the benefit of the Members in order to permit the assets to be sold without undue loss and the proceeds thereof, subject to the Act, distributed to the Member at a future date. The legal form of the holding entity, the identity of the trustee or other fiduciary and the terms of its governing instrument shall be determined by the Managers.

Section 14.02. Termination. The Company shall terminate when all the assets of the Company, after payment of or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company, shall have been distributed to the Member in the manner provided for in this Article and the Certificate of Formation shall have been cancelled in the manner required by the Act.

Section 14.03. Claims of the Member. The Member shall look solely to the Company's assets for the return of its Capital Contributions, and if the assets of the Company remaining after payment of or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company are insufficient to return such Capital Contributions, the Member shall not have recourse against the Company.

ARTICLE FIFTEEN
